of renders all enactments for redress impotent which Mrs. Adams speaks, is the famous east room of the Witte House. The Democrat anys, that, if we were in Live in New Maxico.-Extract from a leta free State, we should roll up the whitee of our ter from a gentleman attached to the army and eyes about the monstrous evil of slavery. That's stationed at Albuquecque, New Mexico:

twhat he did at Sand Creek when be colled to whites of his eyes up at the Lord and prayed for "the poor down-trooden closes."

By the way, a friend called at our effice on Traday evening and informed our clerk that he had in his possession at bome a copy or a abstract of our neighbor's Sand Creek prayer, at would bring or send it to us. It was, according to our friend's account of it, a terrible Aboltion prayer. Our neighbor would gelimself thoroughly featbered, and so look even more like a big buzzard than he at present does, if he were to takk to the people now as be talked to God at Sand Creek.

Having now the promise of the Sand Creek prayer and a very fair prospect of the Sand Creek seemon, we mean to take measure. The form the sum of eighten dolles.

The report of the settlement of the Finance Committee with J. J. T. Murray, railroad tax collector of the Western District, was unanimously adopted. Said report shows a balance in favor of Mariay of $300 nl, and a resolution classification that the balance was adopted. Many of them, if not all, are old members and picterains in the service, ind are now ready and willing to do battle against fire as in days past. I therefore earnestly recommend that the engine and apparatus, purchased of them last summer, be at once thoroughly repaired and placed in their charge, and, if better cannot be done, I would advise that the house on Fifth street, formerly occupied by the company, he rented for their use and the company at once he intested with all the rights and privileges of a fire company, under the name of Washington No. Respectfully, JOHN BARBEE, Mayor.
